Re: Our File No.: 0405-446
Complainant: Attorney Disciplinary Board
Respondent: Thomas J. Fiscus

Dear Mr. McCormick:

The above complaint filed against your client came on for consideration by the Board at its recent hearing meeting.

Following a review of the complaint, the response thereto, the Board's investigation, and the file, it was the determination of the Board that although respondent engaged in improper military conduct, his actions did not rise to the level of a violation of Iowa's ethical rules for lawyers. In particular, the information provided to the Board did not indicate that respondent coerced sexual favors or gave preferential treatment to any of the women named in the Air Force investigation. Nor did the Board conclude that respondent had obstructed justice.

Accordingly, the complaint was dismissed.
